

Chartered Life Underwriter, CLU® The CLU designation is an internationally recognized credential for professional financial advisors specializing in advanced planning areas of wealth transfer and estate planning for individuals, business owners and professionals. The CLU designation, granted in Canada by The Institute for Advanced Financial Education, is Canada's premier wealth and estate planning designation. A CLU professional is qualified to help you with estate planning, wealth transfer, income replacement, risk management and succession planning.

Chartered Financial Consultant, CH.F.C.® The CH.F.C. designation provides professional financial advisors with advanced knowledge in wealth accumulation and retirement planning for individuals, professionals and business owners. A CH.F.C. professional is qualified to help you with advanced financial planning needs.

Certified Financial Planner®, CFP® The Certified Financial Planner (CFP) designation is an internationally recognized standard for financial planning. It is granted in Canada by Financial Planning Standards Council (FPSC). A CFP professional is qualified to help you with personal financial planning.